

We are proud to support a brighter future for Scotland's young people

We are delighted to celebrate a further £1 million in Scottish Government funding for MCR Pathways.

Together, we are:

- Tackling child poverty to secure a brighter futures across Scotland.
- Providing access to vital Trusted Adult volunteer mentor support. Together we will ensure every young person has someone to help them find their way.

